This book analyzes the verticalization of coalition cabinets from the national to the sub-national level, presenting case studies for countries with federal systems of government such as Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Germany, and India, as well as those focusing on states with hybrid systems of government such as Italy. The contributors analyze multilevel government formation processes to identify vertical congruence between national and sub-national coalitions. The book also examines various factors affecting the degree of congruence of political coalitions, such as the degree of decentralization, federalization, and institutionalization of political systems, as well as cleavage structure. This book will be a valuable resource for all scholars interested in coalition politics, as well as for politicians and practitioners in government and parliament.

El marketing viral se inoculó en el panorama profesional publicitario como una vacuna eficaz y económica contra la supuesta inmunidad de las audiencias. A los mensajes comerciales conseguir que fueran los consumidores quienes transmitieran los anuncios espontáneamente entre sus redes sociales se consideró la panacea en un mercado comunicativo sobresaturado. Sin embargo, la publicidad boca a oreja basada en recomendaciones ya consiguió el mismo objetivo desde tiempos ancestrales. Fueron las tecnologías de la información y de la comunicación las que posibilitaron el salto exponencial hacia la publicidad viral y en consecuencia un cambio de magnitudes sin precedentes: los contenidos comerciales pasaban a ser compartibles a escala planetaria a la velocidad de un clic. Este libro se centra en detectar las claves creativas comunes que detonaron el contagio de 651 vídeos publicitarios entre los usuarios de las redes sociales digitales a partir de un constructo analítico formado por drivers creativos, cepas virales y la variable ambigüedad. Se propone la fórmula $VCCDC$ como base inspiradora para crear publicidad altamente contagiosa.

Conflictos bélicos, relaciones internacionales, globalización, terrorismo o migración son algunas de las cuestiones que se abordan en el seno de la UE y en las que chocan intereses nacionales. Se negocian contradicciones aparentemente irreconciliables y se intenta llegar a una solución en la que todas las partes puedan estar en última instancia de acuerdo. Este libro pretende arrojar algo de luz sobre esta institución y despertar el interés por ella independientemente de si eres un entusiasta europeo o un euroescéptico.
